Playing Field Distances—Left and right field fences, 330 feet, 100.6 meters; Center field fence, 402 feet, 122.5 meters; Outfield fence, six feet high; Wall, 22 feet high.

Renamed Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium in 1975, the Braves' home park is located one mile south of midtown Atlanta at the junction of Interstate Highways 20, 75 and 85. It was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Ground was broken April 15, 1964 and the first game was played April 9, 1965—the Milwaukee Braves defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game three days before the 1965 season opened in Cincinnati. Approximate cost of the Stadium was $18 million. Architects were two Atlanta firms, Heery and Heery, and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Co. of Charlotte, N.C. and Atlanta. Permanent fold-away seats were added during 1976, increasing football capacity.

Stadium Manager—Sid Scarborough; Assistant—Jim Hay.

TED TURNER

Atlantan Ted Turner promised only one thing when his company purchased the Atlanta Braves this year.

"Our long and short-range goal is to bring a championship to Atlanta with the Braves," Turner said. "That's what we'll be working toward from now on."

Turner, 37, became the president of the Braves when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Corporation on Jan. 14, 1976. He brings a lifetime of successful ventures along with him.

Turner was born in Cincinnati, O., Nov. 19, 1938 and was graduated from Brown University where he was vice-president of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

His business career began as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960, and in 1963 became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970, Rice Broadcasting merged with Turner Communications Corporation, and Turner became general manager of the flagship station, WTCG, in Atlanta. Subsequently, Turner purchased WRET-TV in Charlotte, N.C., and two radio stations in Chattanooga, Tenn., as part of his communications system.

Turner is presently serving on the Board of Directors of Southern Outdoor Markets, Inc., the Board of Directors of the Association of Independent Television Stations and on the Board of Governors of the Outdoor Advertising Institute. He was chairman of the National Outdoor Advertising Association convention held in Atlanta in 1969 and is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Capital City Club and the Atlanta Yacht Club.

Turner's successes as a yachtsman have received world-wide notice. He was captain of Mariner in the America's Cup Series in 1974 and was the first winner of the Southern Ocean Racing Conference in 1966. He was the Y Flyer National Champion in 1963, the North American Champion of the Flying Dutchman Class in 1965 and three times winner of the U.S. 5.5 Meter Championship. He has won the prestigious Scandinavian Gold Cup twice and has been honored as the Yachtsman of the Year on two occasions. He was named the World Ocean Racing Champion in 1972.

Turner has been just as successful as a businessman. Under his leadership, WTCG was changed from a floundering UHF station into a flourishing one, thanks in large part to the emphasis placed on sports. WTCG has been the Braves' television flagship station for the last three years, and the station also telecasts Atlanta Flames' hockey games and Atlanta Hawks' basketball. WTCG will televise better than 60 of the Braves' games in 1976.

Turner and his wife, the former Jane Shirley Smith of Birmingham, Ala., live in Marietta, Ga. They have five children, Laura Lee, R. E. Turner IV, Rhett, Beau and Jean.

EDDIE ROBINSON

EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT

Eddie Robinson has always been known as a man of decisive action and he showed why in the winter of 1975.

Robinson, named the Braves' executive vice-president in 1974, hired a new manager, two new coaches and acquired 10 new players in the three months following the 1975 season, giving the Atlanta Braves an entirely new look going into 1976.

He traded away veterans like Ralph Garr, Mike Lum and Tom House, but in return, he got the speed, defense and power that can make the Atlanta Braves a much-improved team in the new season.

That type of activity has been the trademark of the Paris, Tex. native since he took over as vice-president of baseball operations in 1973. His deals with the Dodgers, White Sox, Red Sox and Reds following the 1975 season were generally praised around baseball as brilliant maneuvers.

Robinson, born on Dec. 15, 1920, has made other fine deals, too. He obtained Buzz Capra from the New York Mets in 1974 and Capra went on to win the National League's ERA title that season. Dave May, Earl Williams and Elias Sosa also came to Atlanta in deals made by Robinson.

Robinson began his playing career with the Cleveland Indians' organization in Valdosta in 1939. Four years later, he was playing in the big leagues and heading toward four All-Star and two World Series appearances.

He had some great seasons in his 13-year major league career, but his finest may have been the 1951 season with the Chicago White Sox when he hit .282, belted 29 homers and drove in 117 runs. He is one of the few men ever to hit a home run out of Comiskey Park in Chicago.

He began his move into the front office following his retirement in 1957 with the Baltimore Orioles, serving as a coach there, and then in the front office with Kansas City and Houston. He was named the Braves' minor league administrator in 1967 and then executive vice-president in 1974.

He was honored by the Georgia Athletic Hall of Fame as Sportsman of the Year in 1974 because of his successes as the Braves' vice-president.

Robinson and his wife Bette live in Decatur, Ga., and have three children, Marc, Paul and Drew.

James David Bristol. Born June 23, 1933 at Macon, Ga. 5-11, 175. Graduated from Baylor School, Chattanooga, Tenn., 1951. Graduated from Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, N.C., Bachelor of Science in Education. Married Betty Greenwood, has two children, Mike and Cissy. Lives in Andrews, N.C..

When Eddie Robinson set out to find a new Braves' manager last season, chief among his requirements was that the man be a tough, fiery disciplinarian.

Robinson, after talking with many candidates, knew he had the right man in Dave Bristol. He named Bristol as the new Braves' manager on October 10, 1975.

Bristol, a native Georgian, will be faced with the challenge of turning around a team that finished 40½ games out of first place last season. But he's had tough tasks before, and handled them well.

Bristol began his baseball career in 1951 when he broke in with the Cincinnati Reds' organization as a scrappy infielder. He continued his playing career until 1961, and finished with a .283 batting average as a minor league player.

But he soon found that his scrappiness wasn't going to get him to the big leagues as a player, so he assumed a dual role as player-manager in 1957 in the New York-Pennsylvania League. He finished seventh that season, but the next year, he finished second in the same league.

He went on to win pennants on three occasions in the minor leagues, and managed two seasons in his home town, Macon. Then, in July of 1966, the 33-year old Bristol assumed the reigns of the floundering Cincinnati Reds.

The Reds went from seventh to fourth in his first full season there, and finished third in the Western Division in 1969. Bristol was given credit for the help he gave such greats as Pete Rose, Tommy Helms and Tony Perez, and it was Bristol who started 19-year old Johnny Bench in his first major league game.

Bristol was removed at Cincinnati following the 1969 season, but immediately was named manager of the Milwaukee Brewers the next year. He spent two full seasons with the Brewers, and left that position after 30 games of the 1972 season.

He worked as a coach for the next three seasons under Gene Mauch at Montreal and then assumed his current position last fall.

Bristol brings a wealth of experience, 25 years of it, into his position in Atlanta.

"Dave Bristol," said Helms, one of Bristol's former players, "is one of the best baseball men I've ever known."

Bristol, who will turn 43 in June, lives in Andrews, N.C. and spent most of his winter working with his cutting horses. He's an avid hunter, golfer and country music buff and includes country music star Charlie Pride among his friends.

He's a Southern man, born in Macon and raised in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he starred in three sports at Baylor School in his high school days.

Made his return to Atlanta on Aug. 8 last season, his second major league appearance. Came a long way in one season. Started with San Antonio, played with Richmond for a brief stay, and ended the year with the Braves. Called up after Marty Perez broke a thumb on July 31. BUZZ CAPRA

P

NO. 47

Lee William Capra. Born Oct. 1, 1947 at Chicago, Ill. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 168. Graduated from Lane Tech High, Chicago. Graduated from Illinois State University, Normal, Ill., Bachelor of Arts in Art Education, 1973. Married Cheryl Lynne Faikus. Has one child, Leanne Joy. Lives in Berwyn, Ill. Acquired—Contract purchased from New York Mets, March 26, 1974.

Question marks overshadow Buzz Capra prior to the 1976 season. A painful tendon problem in his pitching shoulder forced Buzz to sit out most of 1975 and then finally submit to surgery in January of 1976. The operation was termed successful, but it will take time before recovery is complete. If Capra could return to form of 1974, he would be a star on the Braves' staff. After coming to Atlanta for a little over the waiver price in 1974, Capra responded with an excellent season, winning the league's ERA title and being named to the All-Star team. Set a Brave's record for consecutive victories by running off a string of nine straight wins during the 1974 season. Despite arm difficulties, Capra still won four games in 1975 and could have won two more, losing by scores of 2-1 twice. Was a star college player at Illinois State, making all-conference teams three straight years and Most Valuable Player in the NCAA Regional Tournament in 1969. His 1969 team won the NCAA College Division Championship. Was the 625th selection in the regular phase of the 1969 draft. Was all-city and all-state in high school baseball, and was also a high school wrestler. Younger brother Bob was signed by Braves and had a good year pitching with the Rookie League team at Kingsport in 1975. Capra launched a recording career last season when he starred on the Braves' version of "Take Me Out To The Ball Game". Proceeds from record sales went to the American Cancer Society.

Married Cynthia Eleanor Pajak, has one child, Keith Allen. Lives in Cincinnati, O. Acquired—Contract obtained from Cincinnati for that of Mike Lum, Dec. 12, 1975.

Darrel Chaney has a friend on his new team—manager Dave Bristol. . . Bristol was managing the Reds in 1969 when Chaney made his major league debut, and the Braves' manager still thinks a great deal of the shortstop. . . Bristol thinks Chaney, restricted to a reserve role with the Reds, can be an excellent full-time shortstop. . . Chaney can also play second and third. . . Was a valuable reserve on the 1975 World Champion Reds. . . As a high school football player at Morton High, Chaney received All-State and All-American honors. . . Turned down a full scholarship offer from Notre Dame as a highly-sought quarterback to play baseball. . . Led the league in fielding at Indianapolis in 1971, and was second in the Southern League in home runs in 1968. . . Played in three World Series with the Reds. . . Was drafted second by the Reds in the 1966 free agent draft. Reds' first choice that season was Gary Nolan. . . Graduated from Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Ga., Bachelor of Science in Recreation, 1969. Married Cheryl Woods Culpepper, has two children, Victor Crosby III and Amey. Lives in Statesboro. Acquired—Traded from Pawtucket, Boston organization, in exchange for infielder Chuck Goggin, March 26, 1974.

Vic was disappointed with his second full year in the major leagues as his average dropped off to .215 . . . Still hit 11 home runs, and at one point, was tied for the league lead in that department . . . Hit five homers in five games in one binge, ending his streak with his second career grand slam homer against the Expos . . . Also had five RBIs in that game . . . In his rookie season, his first major league homer was also a grand slam shot . . . Vic's home town of Statesboro honored its favorite son on Statesboro Night at the Stadium last season . . . In the off-season, Vic still trains hunting dogs and takes care of his pet mule "Henry" . . . Last winter, though, played in the Venezuelan League . . . As a catcher for Georgia Southern in Statesboro, Correll once had to work in three straight games—all the same day . . . Helped team out in unusual way last season. Giant pitcher Pete Falcone had a no-hitter going with two out in the eighth when Correll walked. Correll then got into fight with Willie Montanez at first base, and following the delay, Falcone allowed a hit to Rod Gilbreath . . . Originally signed with the Cleveland organization . . . Had a great day in the Hall of Fame game in 1974. Hit two homers that day . . . Rates as one of the better golfers on the team.

BRUCE DAL CANTON

John Bruce Dal Canton. Born June 15, 1942 at California, Pa. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 215. Graduated from California High School, 1960. Received B.S. Degree from California (Pa.) State College and Masters from University of West Virginia and California State College in Biology. Married Helene Horovitz. Lives in Carnegie, Pa. Acquired—Obtained on waivers from the Kansas City Royals, June 30, 1975.

A terrible year as a starter for Bruce may have meant the discovery of an excellent reliever for the Braves . . . After losing five straight games as a starter for Atlanta, Dal Canton went to the bullpen and won two and saved three in the last weeks of the season . . . Allowed only three earned runs in 17 appearances out of the bullpen . . . Best single performance came against Houston when he entered a game with the bases loaded and no outs and allowed no runs . . . Pitched in tough luck as a starter, too . . . Never allowed more than three runs in any of his five losses as a starter and faced Tom Seaver (twice), Jim Lonborg, Randy Jones and Steve Rogers in his first five starts . . . Most effective pitch out of the bullpen is the knuckleball . . . Started using the knuckleball during the 1974 season, and it's proven a good pitch for him . . . Biggest thrill as a player came when he retired 23 Yankees in a row while with the Royals . . . Began his big league career with the Pittsburgh Pirates . . . Had a 20-8 record in four years with Pittsburgh . . . Once went an entire year without losing a game with the Pirates, from June 1969 until July 1970 . . . As a pitcher at California State College in Pennsylvania, Dal Canton once struck out 20 of 21 men in a seven-inning game . . . Had never pitched short relief with his knuckler until last season . . . In obtaining a Masters in biology, Dal Canton wrote a paper on the physiology involved in sore pitching arms.

Darrell Wayne Evans. Born May 26, 1947 at Pasadena, Calif. Bats left and throws right. 6-2, 205. Graduated from John Muir High School, Pasadena, 1965. Attended Pasadena City College. Married Ladonna Martin. Lives in Decatur. Acquired—Drafted by Atlanta from Vancouver, Oakland Athletics organization, Dec. 2, 1968.

A move to first base appears in the offing for Evans, still one of the best power hitters in the game after his 1975 season . . . Blasted 22 homers and led the team in nearly every offensive category, including games, runs, homers, RBIs, and walks . . . Also was the team leader in game-winning hits with eight . . . Still, Evans was disappointed with his batting average at .243 and with his fielding at third base last season . . . Has played 23 games at first base in his big league career, and played a great deal in the Puerto Rican winter league in the off-season . . . Started last season on a hot streak, hitting five homers and knocking in 15 runs in the first 16 games . . . Improved his base-running dramatically last season . . . Doubled his previous best by stealing 12 bases, and won one game with his base-running . . . Set a National League record in 1974 by taking part in 45 double plays, the most ever by a third baseman . . . Became a member of the only trio of players in history to hit over 40 home runs in one season for the same team when he hit 41 in 1973 . . . Hank Aaron and Dave Johnson were the other two . . . Evans was named to the National League All-Star team that season . . . For the first time in three seasons, Evans failed to lead the majors in walks in 1975 . . . He still had over 100, however . . . Evans' three-year total of 88 homers is third best total in the National League. Only Mike Schmidt (92) and Willie Stargell (91) have more . . . Comes from an athletic family. His grandfather and uncle each played professional baseball and his mother and aunt were professional softball players for the Orange Lionettes in Pasadena . . . Was All-California in both baseball and basketball at Pasadena City College . . . In his first season as a professional, Evans was named Gulf Coast League Player of the Year at Bradenton . . . Switched from contact lenses to glasses midway through last season . . . A stamp collector . . . With the flurry of trades in the off-season, Evans becomes the player with the most time in an Atlanta uniform other than Phil Niekro.

LEE LACY

INF

NO. 26

Leondaus Lacy. Born April 10, 1948 at Longview, Tex. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 175. Graduated from McClymonds High School, Oakland, Cal., 1967. Attended Laney College. Single. Acquired—Obtained along with Jim Wynn, Jerry Royser and Tom Paciorek in exchange for Dusty Baker and Ed Goodson, Nov. 17, 1975.

Lee appears ready to blossom into a full-fledged major league star on the strength of his 1975 season with the Dodgers . . . Playing full-time for the first time in his career, he hit .314, which would have been good enough for 10th best in the league with enough at-bats to qualify . . . A fine athlete, Lacy plays second and third mainly, but spent most of his playing time in 1975 in the outfield for the Dodgers . . . Has good power for a smaller man, evidenced by the seven homers he hit in 1975 . . . Also drove in 40 runs . . . Had a streak in early April for Los Angeles when his average jumped from .222 to .406 with 24 hits in 13 games . . . A rest over the winter is expected to help Max return to his best in 1976 . . . Had to sit out the beginning of the 1975 season with a tender arm, and never did show the fine pitching that made him a surprise out of the bullpen in 1974 . . . Although only 25, Max is an eight-year veteran of professional baseball . . . At the age of 17, he was named to the all-star team with Fresno of the Mexican League . . . Has a lifetime record of 41-18, and his .695 winning percentage is the best of any active major league pitcher with more than 50 decisions . . . Was a dominant force in the Red Sox pennant drive, and won one of the American League Championship Series games against the A's . . . Pitched in three World Series games against the Reds and did not allow an earned run . . . Has always split time between relieving and starting in his career, but almost certainly will be a starter for the Braves . . . Has had only one losing season in eight professional seasons . . . Had another spectacular season in 1973, finishing with a 13-2 record for the Red Sox . . . Pitched a one-hitter against the White Sox in 1974, allowing only a single to Dick Allen . . . Joining Carl Morton and Phil Niekro in the starting rotation, Moret gives the Braves a sound trio.

OF

Rowland Johnnie Office. Born Oct. 25, 1952 at Sacramento, Cal. Bats and throws left. 6-0, 170. Graduated from McClatchy High School, Sacramento, 1970. Attended Sacramento City College. Single. Lives in Sacramento. Acquired—Signed after being drafted in the fourth round of the 1970 free agent draft.

Rowland Office was the biggest and happiest surprise of the 1975 season for the Braves . . . While he lived up to his reputation as a great defensive player, he also responded by leading the team in hitting with his .290 batting average . . . Made one of the best catches ever in Atlanta when he leaped high at the center field fence to catch a sure home run ball and then fell over the fence head first with the ball still in his glove . . . Set an Atlanta record by gathering five straight pinch hits late in the season to break the old record of four held by Mike de la Hoz and Rod Gilbreath . . . Tied another record when he received three intentional walks in the same game . . . Capped the zaniest Braves' win of the year when he hit a three-run homer off Dodger ace Mike Marshall in the bottom of the ninth to give Atlanta an 11-10 win . . . Braves scored six runs in the ninth to get the victory . . . Was a high school foe of new Brave Jerry Royster . . . His .290 batting average was the second best of his professional career. Only a .302 mark at Greenwood has been better . . . Went on a streak in July when he hit in nine of 10 games and upped his average to .333 . . . Was selected as the fourth outfielder on the Sporting News major league All-Rookie team in 1974 . . . Won't be 24 until after the '76 season is over.

Acquired—Obtained from the Los Angeles Dodgers along with Jim Wynn, Lee Lacy and Jerry Royster in exchange for Dusty Baker and Ed Goodson, Dec. 12, 1975.

Tom Paciorek may finally be getting his good chance of playing regularly in the major leagues . . . Playing behind stalwarts such as Steve Garvey, Bill Buckner, Jim Wynn and others, he's never had a good shot of playing regularly . . . Despite this, he's considered a player with great talent . . . Dodger manager Walter Alston said, "Tom came up on the same minor league teams as Garvey, Buckner and Ron Cey and he out-hit them at every stop" . . . He had five seasons in the Dodger chain with .300 averages . . . His best minor league season came in 1972 when he led the Pacific Coast League in games, runs, hits, doubles and homers and added 107 RBI and a .307 batting average . . . He was named "Minor League Player of the Year" by Sporting News that season . . . Saw his average fall to just .193 while playing in only 62 games last season . . . Happy to be with the Braves, Paciorek says, "Going to spring training with the Dodgers was just a formality with me. I'm looking forward to getting a chance in Atlanta" . . . As a high school star in Detroit, Paciorek won honors in football and baseball and went on to earn All-American mention while playing halfback with the University of Houston . . . The Miami Dolphins drafted him in the ninth round following his senior season at Houston . . . Dodgers drafted him in the fifth round of the 1968 free agent draft.

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

DON DAVIDSON

Donald Davidson was named Vice-President of the Braves on Jan. 28, 1976, a title fitting for a man who has worked with one organization since 1948.

Davidson, born May 27, 1925 in Boston, has been working with the Braves longer than any other employee. He joined the Braves full time in 1948 after starting his baseball career as a clubhouse boy at the age of nine. He served as public relations director before assuming his present duties as traveling secretary, and was Assistant to the Chairman prior to being named Vice-President.

Davidson is married to the former Patricia Garin and they have three children, Patricia, Margot and Deehan.

BILL LUCAS

Bill Lucas will complete his fourth year as the head of the Braves' minor league system in 1976, and it's been four years of production from the farm system.

Lucas, who played with the Braves' organization on the AAA level, graduated from Florida A & M University, where he earned selection to the NAIA All-American baseball team. After completing his playing career, the 40-year old Floridian served as public relations director of the Atlanta Crackers in 1965 and as a public relations assistant for the Braves in 1966. He was named assistant farm director in 1967 and moved into the post of minor league administrator in May of 1972.

Lucas lives in Atlanta with his wife Ruby and their three children, William Jr., Wonya and Andrea.

1976 TICKET OUTLETS

Braves tickets can be obtained easily in 1976 at more than 50 ticket outlets around Atlanta and the Southeast. Included in the Atlanta area are all Rich's and Davison's stores as well as Eller's News Center of Forest Park, First National Bank of Newnan, Peachtree Bank and Trust of Chamblee, Embury Hills and Wesley Chapel Rd., Riverdale Book and News Center, Roswell Bank and Jim Salle's.

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score, 7-4.

1975 Results

While no pennants were won in the Braves' system in 1975, several individual performances highlighted the minor league year for Atlanta. At Richmond, Pablo Torrealba won the league's ERA title and was named AAA left-handed pitcher of the year by The Sporting News. Savannah, led by the pitching of Rick Camp, Don Collins, Mike Davey and Bobby Box, finished second in the Eastern Division of the Southern League. Barry Bonnell was named Player of the Year in the Western Carolinas League after winning the Batting championship. Dick Green was named Player of the Year in the Rookie League at Kingsport for the Braves. For the second consecutive year, the Braves had minor league executives of the year at Savannah and Greenwood. Jon Richardson won the honor at Savannah, while Dave Fendrick was the winner at Greenwood.

1976 BRAVES' TELEVISION AND RADIO

The Atlanta Braves and WTCG-TV will join together in an ambitious 1976 schedule that calls for 64 of Atlanta's 81 road games to be telecast in Atlanta, with a lesser number scheduled over the Braves' huge television network.

Also, WSB Radio will again broadcast every one of the Braves games in 1976 over the entire network of nearly 60 stations, giving the Braves one of the biggest areas of coverage in the nation.

And this year, there will be a new three-man group working out of the Braves' broadcast booth. Here they are:

Ernie Johnson

Ernie Johnson, the Braves' Director of Broadcasting, will be the anchor man in the radio booth for the Braves this season. Johnson, who played with the Braves and pitched in the World Series in 1957, has worked with the organization for over 25 years. He served as public relations director prior to his career in broadcasting, which began in 1962. He became the Braves' play-by-play broadcaster in 1966, and was named Director of Broadcasting in 1974.

Johnson and his wife Lois have three children and live in Sandy Springs, Ga.

Pete Van Wieren

Pete Van Wieren, 31, joins the Braves' broadcast team after serving as the Tidewater Tides' broadcaster for the past two seasons. He has been in radio broadcasting since 1965, and worked as the play-by-play announcer for the Tidewater Sharks' hockey team. He attended Cornell University and graduated from the National Academy of Broadcasting in Washington, D.C. in 1965.

Van Wieren, his wife Elaine and children Jon and Steven live in Atlanta.

Skip Caray

Skip Caray becomes the third man in the Braves' new broadcasting-televising format in 1976 and brings a wealth of experience with him. Caray, 36, has been play-by-play announcer of the basketball Atlanta Hawks for eight years and has been named Georgia Broadcaster of the Year three times. Caray will join the Braves' network only on television, which includes a 66-game schedule in 1976.
